

THE CLAY CITY TIMES.

50 Cents a Year in Advance.

We are here to help Clay City, the Surrounding Country and Ourselves.

J. E. Burgher, Jr., Publisher.

VOL. 6.

CLAY CITY, KY., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1901.

NO. 36.

By Fire.

On the night of Sept. 1, fire was discovered in J. W. Dawson & Bro.'s store at Spout Spring which spread rapidly, burning their whole stock of goods and store room together with our office, some material and the drug store of H. M. Winburn.

Dawson's loss was in the neighborhood of $1,200, our loss $800, while Dr. Winburn's and W. J. Christopher's loss was slight. For a while it was thought that Dawson's dwelling would burn, also, but by the prompt work of the bucket brigade it was saved.

All persons present worked heroically to save our plant and all other property exposed, and to them our sincere thanks are due.

Owing to this fire the TIMES was forced to suspend till the present time but all our subscribers can bear with us under these circumstances.

Letter From Bro. Clay.

Lebanon, I. Ty., Nov. 15, 1901.
DEAR BRO. BURGHER:

I am now located at this place, 14 miles from the Frisco Line at Madill and 16 miles from Marietta on the Santa Fe. A fine country good church, nice parsonage. Mrs. Clay is at Jonesboro, Ark. I am in the Chickasaw Nation. Stayed at the Orphans' Home Wednesday night. The Chickasaws are Methodist, while the Cherokees are mostly Baptist, though we have a Cherokee preacher for us here, a very good preacher.

Love to all the friends, and the blessings of God upon you and yours. I am

Fraternally yours,
Chas. W. Clay.

We have received a letter from the American Type Founders Co. as follows:

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 23, 1901.
Mr. J. E. Burgher, Jr.,
Clay City, Ky.

DEAR SIR:

In looking over last evening's Post, our eyes caught the notice dated at Clay City, Ky., November 22, reading, "The Clay City TIMES is to be established. The first issue will appear next week. J. E. Burgher, Jr. is owner and editor."

We recall the very pleasant business relations we had with you while at Spout Spring, and sincerely hope these will continue during your career at Clay City. We know that the TIMES is bound to succeed with you at the helm, and we wish you all kinds of success.

Sincerely,

American Type Founders Co.,
H. J. Kibble, Mgr.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

The young people will give a hop here Friday night.

C. F. Edwards went to Winchester today.

Mr. Frank Earnest has a brother visiting him this week.

Mrs. Jack Johnson, of Natural Bridge, is visiting in the city.

Try our cough mixture. Best in the world. 25 cents for 4oz. B. L. & S.

J. G. Easter has rented and moved into the Methodist parsonage.

Dr. B. Littlepage was at Spout Spring yesterday on a hunting expedition.

Geo. Goosey is having turkey shooting today and Jack Anderson a turkey walking.

Rev. R. A. Irvin preached a Thanksgiving sermon Thursday night at the M. E. Church.

Gus Redickle, brother of Mrs. Courtney, came down from Allen Wood to spend Thanksgiving.

We will have a supply of calendars and almanacs for 1902. Call and get one about the first of December. B. Littlepage & Son.

J. A. Webb, who has been employed on the O. & K. road, returned home yesterday to enjoy Thanksgiving.

Ed Fletcher, of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting his mother, Mrs. W. A. Hoskin and other relatives in this county.

T. C. Sherman, of Campton, has been in the City two weeks superintending some carpentering for W. R. Cassidy.

To day is Thanksgiving, and it seems that some will not be thankful unless they have some success among the birds, rabbits and etc.

W. R. Cassidy has built a house on Sixth ave. for the purpose of conducting his fur business. When you have fur to sell, see him.

The Sunday-school teachers will have their next meeting tomorrow night at Jas. B. Derickson's. These meetings have been held at various places for the past six weeks. They seem to be getting up much interest.

If, while perusing the TIMES, you are looking for errors, you will find them. In the first place we are unable to keep from making them ourselves, and we have an apprentice at the case which insures a plenty for this week.

Take your butter and eggs to Mrs. J. W. Williams,
Clay City, Ky.

Mr. R. M. Garrett of Woodford county, a few days ago received four thousand fruit trees from Hillenmeyer's Nursery at Lexington which he had set out in his already large orchard on the mountain near the old Furnace. This makes ten thousand trees in all he has set out at this place. That this part of Kentucky is unexcelled for fruit growing is no longer a question, but it seems that our home people are slow to put out orchards.

Several of our male citizens went hunting Thanksgiving. Several of our stores closed up and business was dull. Every thing went off quietly.

Vaughn's Mill.

Miss Gorda McKinney visited relatives at Winchester last week.

Mrs. Bud Gravett, who has been sick for some time, is very low at this writing.

Misses Mary and Osia Williams, of near Virden, visited Miss Lillie Ballard Sunday.

Prof. Lloyd Jones closed his school at the Vaughn school house with a nice treat for the children last Friday and left for his home in Washington county.

Snow Creek.

Miss Flosa Vaughn is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Tuttle.

Miss Lula Ogden is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nora Boone, this week.

The turkey crop has been very light in this vicinity, and has been sold at 6½ cents.

Lee Patrick's little daughter, who has been very sick for some time, is fast improving.

Charles Wood, John Chism, Jr. and Thomas Vivion went to Winchester Wednesday on business.

Miss Lillie Vivion, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever, we are glad to say is improving.

Rulim Martin sold a cow and calf to some Clark county parties for $45, and a cow to E. Mansfield for $30.
